2. The grant of Compensatory Allowance during leave, temporary transfer, joining time etc., may be regulated according to rules regulating grant of Compensatory (City) Allowance.]

1. Inserted vide FD Order No.F.1(32)FD(Rules)/78 dated 02.05.1998.

4. Regulation of Compensatory (City) Allowance in different circumstances :

The drawal of Compensatory (City) Allowance shall be regulated as follows in the following cases :-

- (a) During Leave and during Temporary Transfer : A Government servant shall be entitled to draw Compensatory (City) Allowance during leave or temporary transfer at the same rate at which he was drawing before proceeding on leave.

Note - 1. "Leave" means total leave of all kinds not exceeding 120 days and the first 120 days of the leave if the actual duration of the leave exceeds that period, but does not include extraordinary leave, study leave and leave preparatory to retirement/refused leave/terminal leave whether running concurrently with notice period or not. When vacation or holidays are combined with leave, the entire period of vacation or holidays and leave should be taken as one spell of leave.

2. The limit of 120 days referred to in Note 1 shall be extended to 240 days for the purpose of grant of this allowance in case of a Government servant suffering from T.B., Cancer, Leprosy or a Mental disease during the period of his leave taken on medical certificate from a qualified specialist or Civil Surgeon irrespective of the fact whether the leave is on medical certificate from the very commencement or is in continuation of other leave as defined in Note 1 above.

3. "Temporary transfer" means a transfer to duty in another station which is expressed to be for a period not exceeding four months. For purposes of this rule it includes deputation. Subject to the limit of four months, the total Compensatory (City) Allowance, if the temporary duty is subsequently extended beyond four months in all, will remain intact upto the date of the order of extension.

- (b) During Joining Time : A Government servant shall be entitled to draw Compensatory (City) Allowance during joining time at the same rates at which he was drawing at the station from which he was transferred. Where, however, joining time is affixed to leave, joining time shall be added to the period of four months/120 days referred to in Note 1 below clause (a) above unless in any case it is otherwise expressly provided.

- (c) During training within India : A Government servant who is sent on training in India and whose period of training is treated as duty under rule 7(8)(b)(i) of Rajasthan Service Rules shall be entitled to draw Compensatory (City) Allowance during the entire period of such training at the same rates at which he was drawing at the station from which he proceeded on training.

- (d) During Suspension : A Government servant shall be entitled to draw Compensatory (City) Allowance at the rates at which it was paid to him on the date of suspension subject to fulfillment of conditions laid down in rule 53 of Rajasthan Service Rules.

Note : If the headquarters of Government servant under suspension are changed in the public interest by orders of the competent authority he shall be entitled to allowance as admissible at the new station and not otherwise.

- (e) During Re-employment : Subject to the provisions of Rule 3, the drawal of Compensatory (City) Allowance shall be regulated as indicated below :
- (i) If the pay plus pension exceeds the maximum pay of the post in which re-employed the allowance shall be calculated on that maximum.
 - (ii) If the pay on re-employment is fixed without taking into account the entire amount of pension or part thereof, the amount of pension so ignored shall not be taken into account for the purpose of grant of Compensatory (City) Allowance.
 - (iii) In all other cases the allowance shall be calculated on pay plus pension.

Note : For the purpose of this clause 'pension' means gross pension including ¹[xxxxxx] pension equivalent of death-cum-retirement gratuity and other retirement benefits, if any.

- ²[(f) During Awaiting Posting Orders : A Government servant shall be entitled to draw Compensatory (City) Allowance during the period of awaiting posting orders at the same rates at which it was drawn immediately before the period of awaiting posting orders.]

5. These rules shall supersede existing orders issued from time to time in regard to grant of Compensatory (City) Allowance to Government servants.]
